• Lt. Col. Robert R. Leonhard, "Soldiers of Gideon: The Defense of the Golan, Oct. 1973"—how Israel bested a Syrian onslaught, typified by the effort of Lt. Zvi "Zwick" Greengold, who convinced his adversaries they were up against a force of tanks, when he was armed with only one. From the Battle of Gallipoli in 1915 to the Allied chase of German forces across France in 1944 to the crippling of the Russian Army by Chechen rebels in 1995, battlefield fights and fireworks throughout the century are recounted in brilliant detail, revealing all the action—and wisdom—they have to offer, in powerful prose

by military professionals. "Leadership, not machines, not doctrine, not even logistics, is the supreme element in war." These are the words of Lt. Col. Richard Hooker, editor of By Their Deeds Alone. They describe the lesson taught by this extraordinary collection, a gripping and inspiring anthology of battle histories written by brave men who've been there themselves. Here are dramatic retellings and relevant interpretations of campaigns recent and remote, famous and forgotten—designed to teach tactics to today's military leaders as well as inform and entertain any history or military buff. Ten accomplished historians—at once combat commanders and acclaimed authors—transport you to the front lines of real battles in wars from around the world, including:

- Col. John Antal, "A Most Daring Enterprise: The Conquest of Fortress Singapore"—in a cautionary tale for any country facing a "weaker" foe, the Imperial Japanese Army defeats a superior force of overconfident British—and conquers the supposedly impregnable fortress of Singapore
- Col. James R. McDonough, "African Holocaust: The Rwandan Civil War"—in 1994, quiet and introverted master of infiltration Paul Kagame took the nation's capital, Kigali, with his Rwandan Patriotic Front, defeating a foreign-funded government force.
- Lt. Col. Robert R. Leonhard, "Soldiers of Gideon: The Defense of the Golan, Oct. 1973"—how Israel bested a Syrian onslaught, typified by the effort of Lt. Zvi "Zwick" Greengold, who convinced his adversaries they were up against a force of tanks, when he was armed with only one.

The Westminster Review

Astonishing poetry that moves between conversational simplicity and dense metaphor with the ease of a tumbler floating momentarily above her trampoline. Readers who know Elisabeth Harvor as a compelling writer of fiction will experience the thrill of another discovery with 'Fortress of chairs', her first book of poetry.

On the last day of June, my bush pilot left me alone and without food in a wilderness rainforest of Southeast Alaska. He would return in September. For the next ten weeks my survival would depend on foraging, hunting and fishing on an island I would share with 1,600 brown bears. This is my story of hunger and solitude, salmon fishing and stormy seas, torrential rains and mountain sunsets, giant halibut and deer hunting, campfires and killer whales. Illustrated with nearly fifty photos and a map.

Excerpt from Lectures on the Origin and Growth of Religion: As Illustrated by the Religion of the Ancient Babylonians A word of apology is needed for the numerous repetitions in the following chapters, which are due to the fact that the chapters were written and delivered in the form of Lectures. I cannot guarantee the exactness of every word in the translations of the cuneiform texts given in them. The meaning of individual words may at times be more precisely defined by the discovery of fuller materials, even where it has been supposed that their signification has been fixed with certainty. The same fate has befallen the interpretation of the Hebrew Scriptures, and is still more likely to befall a progressive study like Assyrian. Come find relief behind your Father's walls Women today are stressed out and in need of a sanctuary. All of the self-help, marriage-help, home-help books won't cure what ails them. They need to rest in the Lord God. In Our Mighty Fortress, Joan Esherick draws upon the imagery of a medieval castle fortress. As she explores each room and structure from the outside inward, she calls readers to understand progressively more intimate aspects of refuge in God. By teaching women that they can escape 'inner

By Their Deeds Alone

After a relationship impasse, Barbara Feldon -- universally known as the effervescent spy "99" on Get Smart -- found herself living alone. Little did she know that this time would become one of the most enriching and joyous periods of her life. Now Feldon shares her secrets for living alone and loving it. Prescribing antidotes for loneliness, salves for fears, and answers for just about every question that arises in an unpartnered day, she covers both the practical and emotional aspects of the solo life, including how to: Stop imagining that marriage is a solution for loneliness • Nurture a glowing self-image that is not dependent on an admirer • Value connections that might be overlooked • Develop your creative side • End negative thinking Whether you are blessed with the promise of youth or the wisdom of age, Living Alone & Loving It will instill the know-how to forge a life with few maps and many adventures.
