Love Life

Gabby McPhee is the owner of The Tin Man, a chic new cafe and coffee roasting house in Melbourne. The struggles of her recent heart transplant are behind her and life is looking up - until a mysterious customer appears in the cafe, convinced that Gabby has her deceased husband's heart beating inside her chest. Krystal Arthur is a bereaved widow, struggling to hold herself and her two young boys together since Evan's death, and plagued by unanswered questions. Why was her husband in another city the night he died? And why won't his spirit rest? Krystal is convinced that Gabby holds the clues she needs to move towards a brighter future. Gabby needs Krystal to help her let go of her troubled past. The two women must come together to try to unlock the secrets in Evan's heart in order to set free their own. By the internationally bestselling author of The Tea Chest, this is a profound and moving novel about the deeper mysteries of love and loss - and the priceless gift of life.

A Life, Love and Other Poems

Most of the information in this book came from Angels and Spiritual Masters, who are living in the greater World of Spirit. Therefore, I would like to thank all the Angels and Masters who came down to do their work for God in Love and with Love, and all their helpers, who helped me to fulfill an oath I made. During an out of the body experience, while standing at Mountain Zion in the Presence of God, I promised Him that I would tell all the people the truth about Him and His Spiritual Messengers, the Angels and other life in the Spirit World. All the Angels and Masters spoken to have nothing but Love for God, their fellows spirits, all of Mankind and the Animal Kingdom. Life as we know it, continues after death in a slightly different format, and regardless of what we say or believe every one of us knows deep in our inner being that we came from the world of spirit, and we know deep inside ourselves that that world is real, and that we must one day return to it. Regardless of what we say or believe, we know within ourselves about the Presence of God! I have used most of these short stories as talks during church services, because Angels advised me what to write down, and to use what they have shown me in the world of spirit, as the talk. Therefore, most of the information in this book is from spiritual beings, they are the real authors of this book. I am just an instrument used by them as a voice box in the wilderness of Babel, to explain some of the wonderful stories we read of in the bible. In this way am I also complying with the vow I made to God.

In 1987, the Vatican presented a document, The Instruction on respect for human life in its origin and on the dignity of procreation, confronting the moral dilemmas inherent in the newer reproductive technologies. These papers, first presented at a conference at Georgetown U., consider the clinical and technical aspects, the moral-theological foundations, and the impact on legislation and public policy of these reproductive technologies in light of the Vatican Instruction, which is also included. Imagine being told that your child is going to die, more than 2 years before it happens. You don't know how much time you will have with the child, which child it will be, or even how the child will die In a book called A Gift For Life, author Paula L. Taylor shares the heartbreaking pain of losing her son. But through a gift of love from her beloved aunt and godmother, and her never-ending faith, Paula was able to take these gifts and turn them into hope for herself and her family. With these gifts of love, faith, and hope, Paula finds a way to put them all together, uses them to move forward, and in the end, discovers a gift for life.

A Deepening Love Affair

Day Thoughts on the New Testament of Our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ

The classic collection of sixteen sermons preached and compiled by Dr. King As Dr. King prepared for the Birmingham campaign in early 1963, he drafted the final sermons for Strength to Love, a volume of his best-known homilies. King had begun working on the sermons during a fortnight in jail in July 1962. Having been arrested for holding a prayer vigil outside Albany City Hall, King and Ralph Abernathy shared a jail cell for fifteen days that was, according to King, “dirty, filthy, and ill-equipped” and “the worse I have ever seen.” While behind bars, he spent uninterrupted time preparing the drafts for classic sermons such as “Loving Your Enemies,” “Love in Action,” and “Shattered Dreams,” and continued to work on the volume after his release. A Gift of Love includes these classic sermons, along with two new preachings. Collectively they present King’s fusion of Christian teachings and social consciousness, and promote his prescient vision of love as a social and political force for change.

The Gift of Love

Love is the only hope. It is only because of love that man finds it possible to reach god. If there were no love there would be no religion, no prayer. If there were no love there would be no creativity, no music, no dance, no art, no poetry. If there were no love there would be no beauty, no friendship, no happiness, no intimacy. All that is valuable in life comes through love. Love is the source of all that is nourishing and fulfilling. Love is the only heavenly phenomenon on this earth. Everything else is earthly; therefore it is only through love that one can reach to god and heavenly states of being. Without love, life becomes dull, repetitive and unfulfilling. Love: The Most Precious Gift of Life shows us that we must live with love, because that is the only way to really live. The deeper and realer your love is, the deeper and more meaningful your life is. We must think of love and life as being the same and synonymous. If love has so many blessings, why do many couples struggle and face so many difficulties in their relationships? In the second part of Love: The Most Precious Gift of Life, the root social and psychological causes of these conflicts are uncovered, and a solution for solving each problem is also presented. And in doing so it helps us to keep our relationships healthy and intimate, and enable us to embrace love, and through love, reach to our highest potential which is self-realization and enlightenment.

Songs for the New Life

A Gift For Life

My new-year's gift to my son [comprising Pamphilius, Economy of life and Patient boys].

With a loving memory for my twin flame, a soul that has co-evolved with me through many lifetimes. His death has been the greatest gift of all. 18 weeks after my twin flame's departure from his body, the story of our souls' journey has come to a complete cycle of remembering and reunion. The writing of this book has been in conception through the spiritual adventure he took me through after his death, accelerating my soul evolution with the dizzy speed of spiritual experience, understanding and knowing. Before his death, the only spiritual concepts that I knew were past life regression and Akashic record. After his death, I encountered and experienced many other concepts, from after death communication, embodiment, life between lives, soulmate, soul family, life review, karmic relationship, psychic vision, precognitive dreams, soul communication through dream, channeling, meeting my spirit guide, etc. to the ultimate phenomenon that brought us to reunite again in one life time: twin flame and the concept of split incarnation. After meeting his soul again in another parallel body, it took me a while to process what journey I should take and what choice I should make from now onward. This entire spiritual journey has uplifted my perspective about the nature of love, life and death beyond what we assume them to be from our human's perception. It is time that I pass on the most loving gift he gave to me, using his own death, to people who are attracted to this book for its vibration. It is the gift of spiritual understanding about the nature of life and death. Most important of all, it is the deepest knowledge that love is eternal and all that is. In this book, I simply recorded my experience in this relationship before, during and after his death, weaving in all the reading knowledge that he brought me to through this journey. These readings helped to enhance my insights and the spiritual meaning of each twist and turn. What I wrote in this book is my own Truth that has become an inner Light guiding my way. It might be the same or different from what were taught in various religious or spiritual believes and practices. If this book finds its way to you, maybe some of the messages are the answers that you have been seeking for, reflecting your past experience. If this book finds its way to you but didn't leave any strong impression, it may plant the seed of knowledge that only springs up in your mind for a future event. Whatever forms it takes, what sticks to you is the Truth for you. I recorded my own insights from this extraordinary spiritual journey as The Essence of Death, Life and Love, with an intention to provide healing for people who are parted with their loved ones by Death. It helps us reframe our grief and see our pain from another perspective, seeking spiritual meaning for each event and relationships in our life. We are all here to learn and grow spiritually, and the ultimate purpose of love is the spiritual evolution of our beloved.

A Gift of Love

When Canadian Jacquie Gauthier was a young girl, she received a souvenir of Africa - a tiny ebony carving of an elephant. She couldn't have guessed that such a seemingly small gift would ultimately lead her to Africa and the love of her life. "The Gift of an Elephant" is a story about faith, change, struggle and, ultimately, love. It's about adaptation, self-exploration and being open to receiving all of life's blessings, even when they come in apparently unwanted ways. It's about trusting your instincts, your heart and life itself

Gift of Life, The

"Love is a gift from God, a sacred grace that invites us, indeed challenges us to respond with whatever capability we have within us to love God one another and his creation." With these words, Fr. Vladimir Berzonsky penetrates the sublime yet mysterious passages from the Song of Songs, I Corinthians and other books of the Bible which speaks of love. Much has been written in recent years about the difference between erotic love called agape, which is both Christ-like and Christian; but it is the former type of love, according to Berzonsky, that conditions us for the latter. The Gift of Love suggests that we learn to love in stages, developing an ever greater power to become godlike in our affections, increasing our capacity to care less for self and becoming filled with concern for God and all he made. The fifty-seven reflections in this book are written and intended to read separately, yet all deal with the underlying theme of love as expressed in the Bible.

The Three Gifts of Life

Forward As a parish priest for almost forty years and as a pastor for 30 years I have had to deal with the sadness of human life in various ways. In the face of grief, words fail and trite platitudes sometimes evoke anger in one whom we are trying to console. I have often felt helpless in the face of human loss and wanted to do more than extend the care and concern of a priest for a suffering member of his flock. Death, divorce, the loss of a pet can be especially difficult for children. The inability of children to properly express grief in the face of loss often leads to misbehavior and emotional issues.

Jesus Christ is The Gift of Love. Imagine a Christmas basket loaded with innumerable presents. Jesus is like that, overflowing with true blessings God has given freely, with love, to the world. Those who receive Jesus Christ are blessed with many gifts: joy, peace of mind, and the knowledge that a place in Heaven is being prepared for them. No earthly gifts can compare. The Gift of Love explains how important it is to know and appreciate the intrinsic value of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. Pastor Adeboye defines some of the precious blessings which He represents and lets us know how to walk in them.

Deuteronomy 6: 4 "Listen oh Israel The Lord is GOD, The Lord is ONE." Yes indeed HE is One because HE is The Body complete, so if HE is A Male and we were all created in HIS image and Likeness, how does the female fit in? Or what is her part of The Body? Because everything made and created has to be made of the same as The Source. Some clues are: The Body, The Atom, Family, Chromosomes, Purity and Perfection. The Male is the seed and The Female gives it Life, without the female life would not exist: This book is dedicated to My Mother and all Women of The World! Happy Mothers Day!
