I Love You With All My Heart

This book is very humorous, and it gets straight to the point. It could leave you with tears falling from your eyes or make you very angry. My mama was my heart and my soul. She taught me everything I know. I am the man I am because of her. She was my backbone. She was there for me through hard times and good times. What can I say? Words do not explain the things I feel about my mama. She stood by my side when no one else would. She was truly, truly a mother.

After school ends, Mamie keeps writing to Michael Collins, taking comfort in telling someone about what's going on with her family as, one by one, they leave the house thinking that someone else is taking care of her—until she is all alone except for her cat and her best friend, Buster. And as the date of the launch nears, Mamie can't help but wonder: Does no one stay with the ship anymore? ### I Love You All the Time

We just can't get enough of the funny stuff kids say. We share our own children's gems with friends and family. If we're smart, we write down these scraps of accidental poetry. And we turn them into books. Martin Bruckner is an artist and father who not only recorded the sayings of his daughter, Harper, but used each as the inspiration for a work of art. After posting them on social media, Bruckner became the artist that other parents sought out to transform their own children's funny words into artwork. Collected here are 100 mini-posters of pure delight, a marriage of the children's surprising wisdom and the artist's nimble style, plus the occasional backstory that amplifies both. Every parent will recognize the spirited declarations of personality—"I'm training to be a wolf." The endearing mangling of language—"Mommy, I don't need your mouth to talk to me right now." The creative mixing of metaphors—"I need a tissue to wipe my feelings." Those precious, heartbreaking outbursts without guile or filters—"I only love you at the toy store." Illustrated with sweetness and whimsy, each is a window into the irresistible innocence of childhood, even if the sentiment is "Dad, please wipe the bum of this beautiful princess."
