Hi all, I have a large double ensuite spare at Carr Mills which is private accommodation in LS7 2DG, around a 15 minute walk to the centre or a bus stop right outside into it. The only reason my room is spare is because of the covid situation and having moved home due to mental health, they are great flatmates. The contract is until mid-July

The spare room has been staring blankly at me and I finally have made the time to address what I'm going to do with it. I wasn't keen on building a huge dressing room as the room has cupboards already and I didn't feel I was lacking cupboard space in the house anyway. The one aim for that room was to display my shoes and bags, it's

The Spare Room Project - Opening a Door to Publishing

When you live with the right people, you don't just share your space - you share your life. They become more than your flatmates, more than the people ahead of you in the queue for the bathroom. They're your friends. SpareRoom is all about helping you find those people. The people who make sharing amazing.

The Spare Room - Wikipedia

The Spare Room Project aims to help, by matching interns and job seekers from outside London with people in the book industry who live in the capital and who can offer them a place to stay. By easing accommodation costs, this enables people to take up internships that would otherwise have been financially difficult.
