The Way Up Came Down

A Commentary on the Old and New Testaments

Here, archaeologically documented, is the story of the religion of the Goddess. Under her, women's roles were far more prominent than in patriarchal Judeo-Christian cultures. Stone describes this ancient system and, with its disintegration, the decline in women's status.

Sermons Preached in St. James's Chapel, York Street, London

Often our Advent/Christmas journey is focused on us our memories, feelings, relationships and experiences. This study puts the focus on Gods action in Jesus Christ. It encourages participants to think more deeply in terms of the biblical, theological and spiritual meaning of the Nativity, while still applying it to their own life experience.

Biblical Commentary on the Books of Samuel

Ante-Nicene Christian Library

In an age of biblical skepticism, Joel Kramer delivers a refreshing perspective, emphasizing the profound connection between archaeology and the Bible. Utilizing scripture as a primary ancient text and important interpretive tool, Kramer explores the archaeological record at various holy sites. "How can we know these places are authentic?" is the question The Soul of Archaeology: Finding Jesus in the Holy Places seeks to answer by examining the archaeological layers at ten commemorated sites: five Old Testament-focused and five New Testament-focused. "Does it matter to know if these sites are authentic?" some may ask. Kramer's response is a resounding, yes! It matters because the Bible is not a made-up account of antiquity as many today claim. Peeling back layers of dirt and time, Kramer uncovers the archaeological evidence pointing to divine interactions with real people which shaped real locations into sites that thousands of years later are still considered holy places.--Publisher.

When God Was A Woman

The Shekinah: Or, the Presence and Manifestation of Jehovah, Upon the Several Dispensations, from the Creation of Man to the Day of Judgment. With Dissertations on the Cherubim and Urim and Thummim

For many years the church has prayed for revival to come, never knowing or understanding how God might answer that prayer. Today, we are witnessing the greatest shaking that we have ever known, and on a world wide scale. As financial institutions become bankrupt, and many lose jobs, land, and homes, the awakening that we once prayed for has come! Everything that can be shaken is, and this scenario is causing even the weakest links within the soul of man to rise up, as God becomes our only hope. But what will become of it all, and how will we survive? Where God's People are Going is like an oracle from the Lord. He tells us in His word that My sheep hear My voice, and I know them, and they follow Me. John 10:27 Until we come to know the Lord's voice, our relationship, and our knowledge of Him is vague at best. The life giving messages in this book are just that, messages that bring life to dark situations, and answers to life's questions about today, and what is yet to come. My questions to the Lord often reflect the times in which we live as I ask the simple question, why?

The Divine Visitor

God Reached Down is a treasury of amazing true stories of answered prayers and other Divine interventions. Each story depicts a time or times when God intervened in someone's life in a special way. A few of the stories in this book that show God's interventions are: Vision of the Afterlife Beneath the Waves Message after Death The Challenge It Would Take a Miracle Perfect Vision I Shook the Hand that Killed My Sister God's Graduation Gift The many ways God contacts us and intervenes in our lives are illustrated in the stories throughout the book. God heals. He leads His leadership taking many forms as circumstances, opportunities and even obstacles. And He brings people together under extraordinary circumstances. Angels still walk among us. People have visions. Even in small ways, we see the Father working in a personal way, helping His children. And always He draws us to Himself. The stories also show God speaking to us in many ways. Sometimes He speaks through His Word, the Bible. Often He comes to us in prayer or after prayer, and we know in our hearts that He has spoken. At times, God speaks to us so clearly that it is as if He has imprinted His answers on our minds. He sends us messages through others and the angels. And there are times when we are gifted with His presence. Many of the stories in this book came to me under unusual circumstances and in unexpected ways. Thus, there is often a story behind a story. A few of these unusual circumstances and stories are mentioned at the end of the book in the Author's Afterword. All the stories show God working in a personal way with His people. The stories also show that God cannot be contained in one place. He reaches in. He reaches out. And He reaches down.

With a divine tour guide, Jody explores both then and now, learning how God is involved in all that matters in life-including his decisions, what he says, and what he does. Read, laugh, study, and most of all enjoy the ledge-side adventure of this wide-eyed character When God Came Down.

The New Testament of Our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ

Who has gone up to heaven and come down? What is his name, and what is the name of his son? Surely you know! (Proverbs 30:4) The most pervasive question in this life is how do we optimally access the next one? The world is full of voices and opinions concerning this issue, but Scripture presents only one solution. Ever since the fall in the Garden, mankind has attempted to reach Heaven, but the perfect path connecting Heaven and Earth consists of none other than Jesus, the Son of God. The Way Up Came Down explores how, because of man's inability to reach Heaven, God in His own unique ability brought Heaven down in the form of His Son. Ultimately, Jesus is the way up.

when God came down for a visit

The British Workwoman Out and at Home

And the shepherders couldn't believe their ears. God? The One Who made the universe and everything in it? Down here? And the great angel said, "Yes, and unbelievable as it seems, tonight God is a baby. And He's lying in a trough in a place where the animals stay. And He's come here to give everyone in the world a gift. And after tonight the world will never be the same again."
